

IN ASSOCIATION WITH:

Harnessing New Models For Growth

8 October 2010, The Ritz-Carlton Hotel, 1150 22nd Street Northwest, Washington DC, USA

The Africa investor Investment Climate Summit is an annual business forum designed to facilitate action, to highlight and address project specific investment climate challenges and shed light on Africa's investment success stories.

DAY 1 –8 October 2010

08:00 – 09:00 Seminar Registrations

09:00 – 09:30 Welcome and Opening Remarks

Welcome and opening remarks

Conference Chair: *Dr Barbara Samuels, Founder and Executive Director, Global Clearinghouse for Development Finance
Thierry Tanoh, Regional Vice President, International Finance Corporation
Obiageli Ezesikwele, Vice President, Africa Region, World Bank

09:30 – 10:30 Driver's of Africa's Growth

In this session, Ministers of Finance, Government leaders and key African business champions will discuss what needs to be done to drive business and achieve success in an African country and how policy makers and business leaders can play a pivotal role in Africa's competitiveness as a global investment destination. The Session will also include an overview of the study "Lions on the Move"

Session Chair: Susan Lund, Director of Research, McKinsey
Percy Barnevik, Chairman, Sandvik AB
Arnold Ekpe, CEO, Ecobank
Nanno Kleiterp, CEO, Netherlands Development Finance Company
Plutarchos Sakellaris, Vice President, European Investment Bank
Mr Stephen Hayes, President, Corporate Council on Africa

10:30– 11:20 Presidential Investors Advisory Councils

Sponsored by World Bank Group

The World Bank and IMF have assisted the African presidents of Ghana, Mali, Senegal, Tanzania, and Uganda in establishing small, high-level Investor Councils to assist in improving the investment climate for business in their countries, with the objective of achieving sustained economic growth and reduction of poverty. The councils are comprised of prominent business leaders and are chaired by each country's President. In this session, hear why the councils were structured to prioritize and focus on a limited number of issues, identify investment obstacles, and generate concrete recommendations for action and further analysis, in order to best ensure that tangible policy reforms are enacted to benefit all investors.

Session Chair: Marilou Uy, Africa Region Financial Private Sector Development, World Bank Group
Honorable Uhuru Kenyatta, Finance Minister, Republic of Kenya
Honorable Syda B. Bumba, Finance Minister, Republic of Uganda
Jim Su cui, Global Sales President, General Electric Energy

Thandi Tobias-Pokolo, Deputy Minister, Department of Trade and Industry, Republic of South Africa
Ali Mufuruki, Chairman, CEO Roundtable
*Paul Deremeaux

11:40-12:30 Mega Investments Roundtable

This roundtable will look at mega investments that are currently taking place in the African continent, how they came about and how these investments will open up the doors for more investment and growth in Africa.

Session Chair: Rachel Kyte, Vice President Business Advisory Services, IFC

Bruce Wroble, CEO, SItthe Global
Honorable Olesegun Aganga, Finance Minister, Republic of Nigeria
Shri T.C.A Ranganathan, Chairman And Managing Director , Export-Import Bank of India,
Chi Jianxin, CEO, China Africa Development Fund
Tshepo Mohale, CEO, Harith Global

12:30 – 13:30 Networking Luncheon

13:30– 14:20 Building Competitiveness

In this session key industry players will look at investment success stories, new opportunities, investment models, current investment profiles, trends and improved banking regulations aimed at attracting private investment and advancing economic growth.

Session Chair: Dr Mohammed Mohieldin, Investment Minister, Arab Republic of Egypt
*William Egbe, President, South Africa Business Unit, The Coca-Cola Company
Johan De Bruijn, Portfolio Manager Frontier Africa Fund, Emerging Markets Management
Anthony Siwawa, Managing Director, Venture Partners, Botswana
*Doug De Villiers, Group CEO, Interbrand Sampson Group

14:20– 15:10 Financing Regional Economic Integration: Fast Tracking Cross Border Investment Projects

Regional integration can foster competition, subsidiary, access to wider markets, larger and diversified investment and production, socio-economic and political stability and bargaining power for countries involved. With the EAC having come into effect on July 1, 2010 and the new OHADA being passed, panellists will discuss what that means for businesses and investors, and how to fast-track the implementation of tangible regional investment projects and cross border/multilateral agreements throughout Africa.

Session Chair: Rosa Whitaker, Whitaker Group
Cas Coovadia, CEO, Banking Association South Africa

Dr James Mwangi, CEO, Equity Bank Limited
Dr Musokotwane, Minister of Finance and National Planning, Zambia
Ebenezer Essoka, CEO, South Africa, Standard Chartered Bank
 Governor, Central Bank of Morocco*
Jean-Louis Ekra, President, African Export-Import Bank*

15:10– 15:35 Networking Break

15:35 – 16:20 Private Equity Clinic

Research prepared by Africa investor and Prequin shows the aggregate capital sought by Africa focused Private equity funds currently on the road eclipses targets set by funds closing 2009-2010 year-to-date, suggesting that the private equity market in the region is fast expanding. This session will explore capital raising strategies for Africa funds and their impact on private sector development through their investee companies

Session Chair: Sarah Alexander, President, EMPEA
Stephen D Cashin, Senior Investment Officer, Pan African Group
Mark Florman, Managing Director, 8 Miles
 Thomas Barry, CEO, Kingdom Zephyr *
 Sev Vettivetpillia, Chief Executive Officer, Aureos Capital*
 Hurley Dobby, Chief Operations Officer, Emerging Capital Partners*

16:20 – 17:10 New Directions for Investment

Agribusiness, Special Economic Zones, Health Care and Rural Electricity are some of the key investment areas in Africa at present. Panellists will showcase upcoming projects, address bottlenecks and discuss emerging new opportunities available for investments throughout Africa.

Session Chair: Janamitra Devan, Vice President, Financial and Private Sector Development, World Bank Group
Dr Ken Offori Atta, CEO, Databank Group
Matthew Tostevin, Editor for Africa, Thomson Reuters
Honorable Tendai Biti, Finance Minister, Republic of Zimbabwe
Dr Cheick Diarra, CEO, Microsoft Africa
Tshediso Matona, Director General, Department of Trade and Industry, Republic of South Africa

17:10 – 17:30 Creating an Ideal Investment Destination – The way forward

This session will highlight the upcoming partnership opportunities capable to moving from goodwill to growth where leading public and private sector organisations will highlight their plans and commitments.

Session Chair: Omari Issa, CEO, Investment Climate Facility
Al Karim Haji, Director General & CFO, Aga Khan University
Frances Reid, Chief Investment Officer, Millennium Challenge Corporation
Aaron Terrazas, Chief Investment Officer, The Africa Group
Bob Sheppard, Co-Chair, Infrastructure Experts Group & Advisor, Global Clearinghouse for Development Finance
Tom Vis, Senior Risk Management Officer, MIGA Senior Representative, OPIC*

Event Partners:

In Association with:

WORLD BANK GROUP

Platinum Partners:

Gold Sponsor:

Supporting Partner:

Supporting Partners:

Associate:

United Nations Office for Partnerships

中非民间商會
China-Africa Business Council

Ai | africainvestor®
www.africa-investor.com

Investment Climate and Business Leaders Awards
8 October 2010, Washington DC, USA

2010

17:30 – 19:30 Africa investor Investment & Business Leaders Awards and Cocktail Function

Presented and hosted by Africa investor

The winners of the Africa Investor Investment and Business Leaders Awards 2010 will be announced during a cocktail function, to be held directly after the Africa investor Investment Climate Summit on the 8 October 2010.

Africa investor hosts the Africa investor Investment and Business Awards to reward exceptional business practices, economic achievements and investments across the investment spectrum in Africa.

To attract more investment Africa’s investment profile needs to be raised showcasing genuine examples of outstanding investment leadership and success. The Africa investor Investment and Business Leaders Awards shed light on Africa’s many investment & Leadership success stories. For more information see: www.africa-investor.com

Carol Pineau, Director/Producer of Africa Investment Horizons will be the MC for the awards evening.

Africa investor Investment Awards:

- Best initiative in support of SME’s and the Millennium Development Goals
- Investment Climate Initiative of the Year
- Bank of the Year
- Carbon Finance Initiative of the Year
- Venture Capital Deal of the Year
- Employer and Human Capital Investor of the Year
- Institutional Investor of the Year
- Investment Promotion Agency of the Year

Finance Minister of the Year

Africa investor Business Leaders Awards:

Leadership in Sustainable Investment in Africa
Africa's Innovation Leader of the Year
African Business Leader of the Year
Leading Woman in Business of the Year
International Business Leader of the Year
Up and Coming Future Leader of the Year